

RTO Assessment Policy

Scope

This Policy applies to all RTO staff and students

Purpose have the following specific meaning, as in the Standards for Registered Organisations (RTOs) 2015.

Assessment means the process of collecting evidence and making judgements on whether competency has been achieved to confirm that an individual can perform to the standard required in the workplace, as specified in a training package or VET accredited course.

Assessment system is a coordinated set of documented policies and procedures (including assessment materials) that ensure assessments are consistent and are based on the Principles of Assessment contained in SRTOs 2015 Table 1.8 and the Rules of Evidence contained in SRTOs 2015 Table 1.8

Competency means the consistent application of knowledge and skills to the standard of performance required in the workplace. It embodies the ability to transfer and apply skills and knowledge to new situations and contexts.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) means an assessment process that assesses the competency/s of an individual that may have been acquired through formal, non-formal and informal learning to determine the extent to which that individual meets the requirements specified in the training package or VET accredited course.

Formal learning refers to learning that takes place through a structured program of instruction and is recognised by the attainment of an AQF qualification or statement of attainment (for example, a certificate, diploma or university degree);

Non-formal learning refers to learning that takes place through a structured program of instruction, but does not lead to the attainment of an AQF qualification or statement of attainment (for example, in-house professional development programs conducted by a business); and

Informal learning refers to learning that results through experience of work-related, social, family, or leisure activities (for example, the acquisition of interpersonal skills developed through several years as a sales representative).

Responsible Unit is the Adult and Community Education unit responsible for delivering both accredited and non-accredited courses.

Policy

Atwea College is committed to providing quality training and assessment in accordance with the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (SRTOs 2015). As such, Atwea College is required to implement an assessment system that ensures assessments (including recognition of prior learning) comply with the

RTO Assessment Policy

The Assessment Model

Three levels of assessment:

Various levels of assessment may be used, including:

- Diagnostic also known as pre-assessment provides information about prior knowledge and skills. This baseline information may diagnose a problem or training requirement.
- Formative assessment assists and supports training by monitoring and advising Students of their performance and rate of progress against the training outcomes. This provides feedback to the student, supervisor and trainer on what development activities are needed to achieve the required competencies. Assessment accumulates.
- Summative assessment evaluates achievement of the Training outcome. Often conducted in the workplace, summative assessment confirms achievement of the competency requirements. Assessment culminates.

Assessment modes may include:

- On-the-job
- As part of training
- Off-the-job (Simulation)
